FERIA CULTURAL

A photograph of three young women sitting on a light-colored sofa. The woman in the center is playing a blue ukulele and has her eyes closed with a joyful expression. She has long dreadlocks and is wearing a black shirt. The woman on the left is clapping and looking towards the center woman. She has curly hair and is wearing a light pink top. The woman on the right is also clapping and looking towards the center woman. She is wearing a bright yellow sweater and glasses. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
